

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

IMPORTANT NOTICE.

Great Central Book Establishment, 136, STRAND, LONDON.

JANUARY, 1884.

Sotheran's Price Current of Literature.

MESSRS. H. SOTHERAN & CO. respectfully inform their Customers that having succeeded in acquiring the adjoining Premises, viz., No. 135, Strand, and Nos. 2 & 4, Wellington Street (next Waterloo Bridge), they have added them to their old house at the above address, which from the increased space thereby obtained, and the communicating of the shops with each other, are now admirably adapted for the convenient display of Stock, and the carrying on of a still more extended Second-hand Business.

They have therefore resolved on transferring the publication of their Price Current of Literature to 136, STRAND (corner of Wellington Street), and accordingly it will be issued for the future from that address, where the Books described in it can be seen.

 Those Customers who may experience any difficulty in alighting from their Carriages in the Strand, will find most convenient Entrances at the Shops in Wellington Street, which form one continuous Establishment with those in the former thoroughfare.

☞ *The PICCADILLY ESTABLISHMENT will be devoted, as formerly, to the Sale of the best Modern Editions of Standard Literature, Pictorial Books, and Works on the Fine Arts, Books for Presentation, Prizes, &c., for the most part in Bindings of Calf, Morocco, Russia, and Vellum, of the highest quality; together with other Valuable and Choice Works, Catalogues of which will be issued occasionally. CURTIS'S BOTANICAL MAGAZINE, or Flower Garden Displayed; from the commencement in 1787 to 1881, including the Continuation by Sir W. J. Hooker and Dr. J. D. Hooker, and the Two Indexes; with upwards of 6000 beautifully coloured plates, 109 vols. in 87: also the Companion, a Journal containing such interesting Botanical Information as does not come within the prescribed limits of the Magazine, with fine coloured plates and portraits, 2 vols. together 111 vols. royal 8vo. uniformly bound in half green morocco extra, gt. ed. £142. 10*s* 1787-1881

Few works have tended so much as this celebrated one to diffuse a general taste for Botany; and few long extended works have so well carried out the plans of the intelligent founder, for it was intended not only "to display accurate representations of the most ornamental Foreign Plants, cultivated in the open ground, the Green-House, and the Stove, in their natural colours, but also to give full descriptions of each, their Places of Growth, and Times of Flowering, together with the most approved Methods of Culture," &c. The effective co-operation of Sir W. J. Hooker and other distinguished Botanists contributed also to the subsequent success of the work.

FLORA GRÆCA, sive Plantarum rariorum Historia, quas in Provinciis aut Insulis Græciæ legit, investigavit, et depingi curavit John Sibthorp, M.D.; Characteres omnium, Descriptiones et Synonyma elaboravit J. E. Smith et J. Lindley, with nearly one thousand large and very beautiful plates, engraved and coloured by Sowerby, after drawings by F. Bauer, 10 vols. royal folio, half green morocco, gt. ed. (scarce), £75. 1806-40

This magnificent work was issued to subscribers only at the individual cost per set of £254. Owing to the very limited number (only 50) which were printed, and to all the copper-plates having been afterwards destroyed, the work must always be exceedingly difficult to procure.

Complete to End of Session, August, 1881.

HANSARD'S PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES and Parliamentary History, from the commencement to end of Session, August, 1881, 369 vols. roy. 8vo. neatly half bound, £128.

The Contents are as follows:—	vols.
Parliamentary History. The Conquest to 43 Geo. III. 1066-1803 . .	36
Debates, first series. 1803 to Death of Geo. III. 1803-1820	41
Debates, second series. Reign of Geo. IV. 1820-30	25
Index to First and Second Series and History	2
Debates, third series. { Reign of William IV. 1830-7 / Reign of Victoria. 1837-81 }	265
	369

From their first issue to the present time, "Hansard's Parliamentary Debates" have enjoyed the highest possible reputation for the accuracy of their Reports, and for the skill and care with which the volumes are compiled. The best proof of their correctness is found in the fact that they have rendered unnecessary any Official Reports of Parliamentary Debates, and quotations from them are received in both Houses with the respect usually given to Official Documents. As a book of reference, "Hansard" is indispensable to every Member of Parliament, and to every public institution of importance.

The Parliamentary History contains all that can be collected of the Legislative History of this country to the close of the XVIIIth Century.

"No work of greater beauty will be produced than that on which John Gould, returning in his later life to his first love, bestowed the fulness of his energy and the acme of his artistic talent. We allude to his 'Birds of Great Britain.' A fine copy of a book on Mammiferous Animals, the equal of which has never been published in any country.

"It is unnecessary to dilate upon the splendid style in which this work is brought out, or on the ability and fidelity that characterize as well the figures as the descriptions contained in it, since these must be well known to all who have seen any of the plates. It will doubtless form the standard work of reference for the mammalia. Necessarily too expensive for general circulation, public libraries and the collections of the rich can alone possess it; but to these it is indispensable, while the manner in which it is executed renders it worthy of a place by the side of their more costly and elegant volumes."—Zoological Journal.

"The study of these Manuscripts (says Mr. Westwood) has brought out the singular fact, that at a period when the Fine Arts may be said to have been almost extinct in Italy and other parts of the Continent—namely from the fifth to the end of the eighth century—a style of art had been established, cultivated, and brought to a wonderful state of perfection in these islands absolutely distinct from that of all other parts of the civilized world and which was adopted and imitated in the schools founded on the Continent by Charlemagne, as well as in the monastic establishments founded or visited by Anglo-Saxon and Irish Missionaries, many of which became famous seats of learning."

680 NOTITIA MONASTICA; OR AN ACCOUNT OF ALL THE ABBIES, PRIORIES, and Houses of Friers, formerly in England and Wales: and also of all the Colleges and Hospitals founded before 1540. By Bishop Tanner. Best Edition, with many Additions, by JAMES NASMITH, one vol. folio, with portrait by Vertue and plates of Arms, Cambridge, 1787. Expanded into 18 handsome vols. folio. by the insertion of more than NINETEEN HUNDRED valuable additional Illustrations, consisting of upwards of twelve hundred and fifty engravings, Ancient and Modern, some of which are coloured, and nearly 730 Original Drawings, many beautifully executed in colours, the whole bound in 18 vols. Full Morocco extra, gt. ed. £135. 1787

The present UNIQUE COPY of this most important work (which is also a very scarce one on account of the greater part of this—the best—edition, having been destroyed by fire at Nichols's printing office in March, 1808) owes its increased value to the life-long enthusiasm, the taste, and liberality of the late HUGH. ARCHDEACON OF SALOP, and his son, EDWARD PRYCE OWEN, M.A., both of whom were not only distinguished Archæologists, but also accomplished Artists, and who executed most of the Drawings. Some of these were made as far back as 1790; and thereby have an aditional interest, as many of the Churches and other Edifices portrayed, if not destroyed, have undergone more or less alteration.

The above-named Illustrations consist of Exterior and Interior Views of Cathedrals, Abbeys, Priories, Churches, Chapels, Hospitals, Colleges, Castles, interior Decorations, such as Monuments, Fonts, Ancient Paintings, etc.; also full-length Portraits of Members of the various Religious Orders, etc. In the collecting of them, not only Engravings published separately have been used, but valuable works have been denuded of their embellishments, e.g., the original edition of Dugdale's Monasticon, Rapin's England, Buck's Views, Helyot's Ordres Monastiques, Coney's Views, etc. The Original Drawings (upwards of 700 in number, and some of which are of a large size) are executed in Pencil, Pen and Ink, Sepia, or Colours, and are not only valuable as exhibiting many Edifices, of which probably no engravings previously existed, but as charming specimens of artistic skill and taste.

THE VOLUMES ARE ALSO ENRICHED BY MANY ADDITIONS IN MANUSCRIPT BY ARCHDEACON OWEN AND HIS SON.

THE WORKS OF SAMUEL RICHARDSON.

WITH A PREFATORY CHAPTER OF BIOGRAPHICAL CRITICISM BY MR. LESLIE STEPHEN.

Price, in cloth, £6 6s., or Tree Calf, by RIVIERE, £9 9s.

From the TIMES, January 25, 1883.

"Messrs. Sotheran deserve thanks for these handsome volumes of Richardson's Works, which are well bound and excellently printed. Not the least merit of the edition is, that it is introduced by a thoughtful and suggestive sketch by Mr. Leslie Stephen."

OPINIONS ON RICHARDSON'S NOVELS.

From the EDINBURGH REVIEW, January, 1884.

"For our part, our advice to intellectual novel-readers would be to leave the circulating libraries in the meantime, and to buy Standard Editions of Standard Authors. Those authors, from Richardson down to Trollope, have written books which will well repay the reading again and again, and in that connection, as the Americans say, we are glad to call attention to some modern reprints of our most eminent novelists, which deserve all we can say in their favour.

"Among the pioneers to whom we alluded is Richardson; and the works of Richardson have been issued by Messrs. SOTHERAN & CO., under the very able editorship of Mr. LESLIE STEPHEN. Richardson, at least, left his genius time to ripen. It is impossible not to follow him with irrepressible interest in his intimate acquaintance with the workings of the heart, and in his subtle analysis of the feminine emotions which culminate in the pathos of tragedy without ceasing to be true to nature.

"Nothing in the history of fiction is, to our minds, more astonishing than the vitality which this dapper little London tradesman gave to personages belonging to a class of society which he had never known. Clarissa Harlowe retains her place as the most touching and tender representative of virtuous womanhood, and Sir Charles Grandison is still the model of high breeding and generous sentiment. They are as real as the creations of Shakespeare, and although a century has changed the taste and fashion of the times, it has taken nothing from the interest of those immortal works."

DOUGLAS'S (Gavin, Bp. of Dunkeld) POETICAL WORKS; with Memoir, Notes, Various Readings, and reference Glossary, by JOHN SMALL, M.A., illustrated by specimens of the Manuscripts, Title-pages, and Woodcuts of the Early Editions, in facsimile: 4 vols. royal 8vo. LARGE AND THICK PAPER (only 50 copies so printed), cloth, £4. 5*s* Edinb. 1874

The above beautiful edition is the first collective impression of this early Scottish Classic, who has been described as a man of accurate observation and original thought—as one who displays a great knowledge of human nature, and who makes pointed observations on the manners and pursuits of mankind. He was also the author of the first metrical translation of a Classical writer in Britain.

His poetical works consist of:—

I. THE PALICE OF HONOUR. [An Allegorical Poem displaying great power of invention, and a ready command of striking imagery, and from which it has been supposed that Bunyan may have borrowed the idea of his "Pilgrim's Progress."]

II. KING HART. [An Allegory of the Progress of Human Life, in which the versification is superior to the "Palice of Honour."]

III. CONSCIENCE. [An Invective against the growing desire of Churchmen for wealth.]

IV. The XIII Bukes of the Eneados of the famous Poete Virgill translated into Scottish Metir.

EARLY ENGLISH TEXT SOCIETY'S PUBLICATIONS, edited by FURNIVALL, MORRIS, SKEAT, WHEATLEY, etc. complete from the beginning in 1864 to 1882, with the Woodcuts for the Babees Book—also the EXTRA SERIES, complete to 1882—together 49 vols. 8vo. half calf antique, carmine top edges, and 23 parts, sewn, £23. 1864-83

127 CURIOUS.—A Friendly Admonition to Drunkards and Tiplers, 46 pp.—A Word of Advice to the Wanton and Unclean, 46 pp.—A Serious Address to those that profane the Lord's Day, 46 pp.—A Check to an Ungovern'd Tongue, 46 pp. 4 tracts in 1 vol. 12mo. calf antique, red edges (rare), £1. 12*s* 1705

128 CURRENCY, SELF-REGULATING and Elastic; with Chapters on the Nature of Capital, and of Money, etc. 8vo. cloth, 4*s* 6*d* 1855

129 DANTE'S INFERNO, the English Translation by CARY, with critical and explanatory Notes, Life of DANTE, and Chronology (large type), with portrait and 75 full-page superb illustrations by GUSTAVE DORÉ, folio, cloth (binding slightly cracked), 12*s* (pub. £2. 10*s*) 1866

130 DANIELL and AYTON'S PICTURESQUE VOYAGE ROUND GREAT BRITAIN, Vols. I and II, and a portion of Vol. III, with upwards of 60 fine plates of Coast Scenery, BEAUTIFULLY COLOURED, in the style of Drawings, 2 vols. folio, half calf (uncut), £2. 10*s* 1814-15

This beautiful and interesting work is unique of its kind. The above portion delineates the coast round Great Britain, commencing from the Land's End, Cornwall as far as Inverary, and gives vivid representations of the scenes most conspicuous for boldness and picturesque beauty. The whole of the plates were drawn and engraved by W. Daniell.

131 DANIEL'S (George, of Beswick, Yorks., 1616-57) POEMS, from the Original MSS. in the British Museum, hitherto unprinted; with Introduction, Notes, and Illustrations by the REV. DR. GROSART, portrait, 4 vols. sm. 4to. cloth (ONLY 100 COPIES PRIVATELY PRINTED), £2. 12*s* 6*d* 1878

These Poems, now first printed, are all on the side of King Charles I. and against the Roundheads. It is a curious circumstance that though they were entered in the Stationers' Registers (11th Oct. 1638) as "Master George Daniell's Poems," and as if about to be published, they seem never to have gone through the press till 1878. It is not impossible that the violence of their Royalist leanings may have had somewhat to do, even at that time, with their apparent non-publication.

131*DANIELL'S (W.) Interesting Selections from ANIMATED NATURE, with Descriptions, 50 beautiful aquatinta engravings of Quadrupeds, Birds, Fish, etc. with illustrative Scenery, designed and engraved by W. D. oblong folio, bds. £1. 1*s* 1809

134 DERBYSHIRE—PEAK SCENERY, or Excursions, in DERBYSHIRE, made chiefly for the purpose of Picturesque Observation, by E. RHODES, with 29 fine engravings, PROOFS, from the Drawings of SIR F. CHANTREY, the 4 parts in 2 vols. 4to. hf. bd. £1. 10*s* 1818-23

135 DIBDIN'S (Dr.) LIBRARY COMPANION; or the Young Man's Guide and the Old Man's Comfort in the Choice of a Library; second edition; thick 8vo. hf. calf, 12*s* 6*d* 1825

Of the first series only 30 copies were printed; of the second, only 40 copies; and of the third, only 62 copies. Consequently it must always remain one of the most difficult works to be obtained in the language. All the pieces which compose it are of the rarest character; and the value of the whole of the original copies, if they could be obtained (which is impossible), would amount to several thousands of pounds.

209 H. B.'s POLITICAL SKETCHES, nearly 250 Humourous and Satirical COLOURED SKETCHES by the inimitable H. B. [John Doyle], introducing Portraits of most of the celebrated Political Characters of the Day, £5. 5*s* 1829; etc.

 Coloured copies are very uncommon.

"Among the many distinguished persons, who, within the last seventeen years, have occupied the most exalted stations in the country, there is scarcely one of whom posterity will not have, in some part of this series of Sketches, the most accurate representation that the pencil can convey; a representation, in which the fidelity of the more elaborate Portrait is combined with a degree of freedom and spirit that the more elaborate Portrait very rarely exhibits."

HISTORY OF THE COPINGERS OR COPPINGERS

Of the County of Cork, (including those of Ballyvolane and Barryscourt,) and Buxhall and Lavenham, in Suffolk.

EDITED BY

WALTER ARTHUR COPINGER,

OF THE MIDDLE TEMPLE, ESQ., BARRISTER-AT-LAW,

Author of The Law of Copyright in Works of Literature and Art, etc., etc., etc.

This volume contains a general account of every branch of the family. Many Deeds, Inquisitions, and Wills, between 1400 and 1700 are given; some are of a very interesting character. The work contains Two Plates of Arms and Three large folding Pedigrees. The pedigrees are mostly compiled from Original Documents, the Heralds' Visitations, Parochial Registers, the MSS. of Jermyn, Davy, and others, and Private Documents of an early date.

The account of the Coppingers of Ballyvolane and Barryscourt, with some particulars of the McMahons, has been compiled by Mrs. Morgan John O'Connell. Many interesting particulars and anecdotes are added by way of Gleanings: accounts being given of Buxhall and Lavenham; of Copinger the Prophet and Coppinger the Poet, with extracts from the curious poems he dedicated to the Duchess of Portsmouth; Sir Nathaniel's remarkable Speech in Parliament, for bringing Archbishop Laud to trial; and numerous other items of an interesting description.

The work will prove interesting, it is hoped, to others than those immediately connected with the Family, by reason of the whole volume being framed on a novel system of treating Family history and by reason of the phraseology of the ancient Documents having been faithfully retained. There is also an Index Nominum, containing over 2000 names.

The Families with whom the Copingers or Coppingers have allied themselves include, amongst others, the Families of:—

ALLEN	FITZGERALD	O'DONOGHUE
ASHLIN	GALWEY	O'DONOVAN
BARRY	GOOCH	O'LEARY
BEYTAGH	GOULD	PEARSON
BLACKNEY	HENNESEY	PYKE

THE WORKS OF SAMUEL RICHARDSON.

Price, in cloth, £6 6s., or Tree Calf, by RIVIERE, £9 9s.

"Messrs. Sotheran deserve thanks for these handsome volumes of Richardson's Works, which are well bound and excellently printed. Not the least merit of the edition is, that it is introduced by a thoughtful and suggestive sketch by Mr. Leslie Stephen."—THE TIMES, 25th January, 1883.

From the EDINBURGH REVIEW, January, 1884.

"For our part, our advice to intellectual novel-readers would be to leave the circulating libraries in the meantime, and to buy Standard Editions of Standard Authors. Those authors, from Richardson down to Trollope, have written books which will well repay the reading again and again, and in that connection, as the Americans say, we are glad to call attention to some modern reprints of our most eminent novelists, which deserve all we can say in their favour.

"Among the pioneers to whom we alluded is Richardson; and the works of Richardson have been issued by Messrs. SOTHERAN & CO., under the very able editorship of Mr. LESLIE STEPHEN. Richardson, at least, left his genius time to ripen. It is impossible not to follow him with irrepressible interest in his intimate acquaintance with the workings of the heart, and in his subtle analysis of the feminine emotions which culminate in the pathos of tragedy without ceasing to be true to nature.

"Nothing in the history of fiction is, to our minds, more astonishing than the vitality which this dapper little London tradesman gave to personages belonging to a class of society which he had never known. Clarissa Harlowe retains her place as the most touching and tender representative of virtuous womanhood, and Sir Charles Grandison is still the model of high breeding and generous sentiment. They are as real as the creations of Shakespeare, and although a century has changed the taste and fashion of the times, it has taken nothing from the interest of those immortal works."

As a Book of Reference, "HANSARD" is indispensable to every Member of Parliament, and to every Public Institution of importance.

COMPLETE TO END OF SESSION, AUGUST, 1881,

THE CONTENTS ARE AS FOLLOWS:—	VOLS.
PARLIAMENTARY HISTORY. The Conquest to 43 Geo. III. 1066-1803. ...	36

Index to First and Second Series and History	2
	369

From their first issue to the present, "HANSARD'S PARLIAMENTARY DEBATES" have enjoyed the highest reputation for the accuracy of their Reports, and for the skill and care with which the volumes are compiled. The best proof of their Correctness is found in the fact that they have rendered unnecessary any Official Reports of Parliamentary Debates, and quotations from them are received in both Houses with the respect usually given to Official Documents.

An exact facsimile of the earliest known edition of Daniel's Delia, made from an unique copy of that impression. The other piece, "The Complaint of Rosamond," is a new and enlarged edition of the first impression [see the preceding article].

86 A MERYE ENTERLUDE, entitled Respublica, made in the year 1553, 7*s* 6*d* No place nor date

One of the most early Dramatic relics in our Language, illustrating the manner in which the Reformation was said to have ruined England: from the contemporary MS.

87 A NEWE ENTERLUDE OF VICE, conteyninge the Historye of Horestes, by John Pikeryng, 7*s* 6*d* W. Gryffith, 1567

A most remarkable curiosity: it exists only in a single copy, and (Bale's "King Johan" excepted), is the earliest known specimen of that intermediate species of stage-representation which followed the old "Morality," consisting wholly of abstract impersonations, and the more modern "History" composed of real characters, as in Marlowe and Shakespeare.

88 THE WORTHIE HYSTORIE of the most noble and valiant Knight PLASIDAS, otherwise called Eustas, who was martyred for the Profession of Jesus Christ: gathered in English Verse by John Partridge, 1566, 7*s* 6*d* H. Denham, n. d.

Important in the progress of our literature, because, in subject and treatment, it forms a connecting link between the older and newer style of composition. It contains the substance of a Play by H. Chettle, purchased by Henslowe in 1599. Only two or three copies are known.

Of this little poem only one perfect copy is in existence. Of the species of lyric stanza adopted no other example is known, either earlier or later. It is used with skill and effect; and the author's simplicity and natural pathos are also remarkable.

90 THE LAMENTACYON OF A CHRISTEN against the Citye of London, for some certain greate Vyces used therin, 7*s* 6*d* Imprinted, 1548

Written by a member of the Reformed Church (and printed probably at Nuremburg) against those who were averse, as it appears the citizens were for a long period, to the publication and reading of the Bible in English. The author is very bold and unmeasured in his denunciations, especially against the magnates of the city.

91 A GORGIOUS GALLERY OF GALLANT INVENTIONS, garnished and decked with divers dayntie Devises, right delicate and delightfull, to recreate eche modest Minde withall. By T. P. [Thomas Proctor], 14*s* 6*d* Imprinted for Richard Jones, 1578

"The third collection of English Poetry. The copy in the Malone collection, reprinted by T. Park, wants two lines in different places, and two entire pages, containing a couple of Proctor's best pieces. In the present reprint this great deficiency has been supplied from the Duke of Northumberland's perfect exemplar (the only other known), but neither of the two lines can ever be restored except by conjecture because the original copy is defective in both instances."—J. P. C.

92 INSTRUCTIONS TO THE LORD MAYOR OF LONDON, 1574-5; whereby he is to govern himself and the City; with a Letter to Sir F. Walsingham, respecting the disorderly dealings of Promoters [i.e. Informers]: by T. NORTON, 7*s* 6*d* 1606

The first Tract, by one of the authors of "Ferrex and Porrex," includes some remarkable details, such as the stealing of children, for the sake of the reward on their restoration, Italian women, outraging decency by Tumbling; the recent introduction of Prayers before the commencement of public business, both in the Parliaments of the kingdom, and of the City of London, etc.

93 THE MYRROUR OF MODESTIE, wherein appeareth as in a perfect Glasse howe the Lorde delivereth the innocent from all imminent perils, etc. by R. G. [ROBERT GREENE], 7*s* 6*d* R. Warde, 1584

An unique tract by the most popular author of the day when it was originally composed. Its subject is an enlargement of the story of "Susanna and the Elders."

94 THE ANATOMIE OF ABSURDITIE; contayning a breife Confutation of the slender imputed Prayses to Feminine Perfection, with a short Description of the severall Practises of Youth, and sundry Follies of our licentious Times: compiled by T. NASHE, 8*s* 6*d* I. Charlewood for T. Hacket, 1589

The author was only in his twenty-second year when he produced the above very rare tract, which was occasioned by his having been jilted by a lady. It bears evident marks of his consequent hostility to the female sex: his abuse is unmeasured.

LORD VERNON'S GRAND PRIVATELY-PRINTED EDITION.

DANTE ALIGHIERI, L'INFERNO, disposto in Ordine Grammaticale e corredato di brevi Dichiarazioni da G. G. WARREN Lord Vernon, finely printed, and illustrated by the photographed portrait of Dante, drawn from the original of Giotto by Seymour Kirkup, and traced on the fresco before it was retouched; portrait of Lord Vernon; maps, genealogical tables, 102 sheets of armorial bearings, and 112 plates, 3 vols. folio, hf. bound, uncut (extremely rare), £54. 10*s* Firenze, 1858-65

This magnificent and valuable edition was printed for presents only. As the distribution of copies was made with great discrimination to parties in whose possession they were long likely to remain, their appearance in the market must be of the rarest possible occurrence: only one other copy than the above has ever been offered for sale.

In these volumes (says a writer in Fraser's Mag. vol. 79), the late Lord Vernon has left the most sumptuous of his many and important contributions to the illustration of Dante, and the work is unquestionably one of the very finest that has ever been privately printed. It is at once a tribute rendered to the great Poet—who indeed wants no further honour—a valuable addition to the means of studying his text and of comprehending his times and the scenes among which he lived, and now a worthy monument, in addition to others of the same kind, to the memory of the accomplished nobleman whose position enabled him to gratify so well his own literary tastes, and to communicate, for the benefit of others, the fruits of his long devotion to the poetry of the famous Florentine. The final editorial labours have been bestowed on the present edition of the Inferno by SIR JAMES LACAITA.

CONTENTS of Vol. 1: The POEM, with a paraphrastic Interpretation or translation of hard places in Italian prose, the explanatory words being in Italic type; also Critical and Explanatory Notes; a Cosmography of Dante, indispensable for understanding the wonderful journey through Hell, Purgatory, and Paradise; and an elaborate chronological List of Editions of Dante, or of illustrative works down to the year 1850.

CONTENTS of Vol. 2: A most valuable and important collection of Original Documents and of Historical and Biographical Matter, comprising an elaborate Life, the full text of the Sentences passed on him, etc. an interesting Literary Chronology from the Sixth to the Thirteenth Century; and Tables of Contemporary History from 1220 to 1320 (which are of great value to readers of Dante as keeping before them the full historical meaning of all he says); a Map of Italy showing its political distribution in the time of Dante; a full account of the Constitution of Florence, and of its ancient Topography and Public Buildings, and of its Commercial Guilds; and finally, Historical Notices of every Family mentioned in the "Divina Commedia," or connected in any way with Dante, illustrated by their respective Arms, to which allusion is so often made in the poem.

CONTENTS of Vol. 3: "The Album," devoted to Pictorial Illustrations—accompanied by short explanatory portions of letterpress—presenting as many as possible of the Places and Buildings mentioned in the "Inferno," founded on daguerreotype views taken expressly for the work. Very eminent artists, both English and Italian, have contributed to the designing and engraving of these plates, and the result is a folio volume of subjects of singular interest and beauty. Included are a few lines of the wail of Francesca of Rimini set to music by Rossini, with the original score given in facsimile from the musician's autograph; besides other interesting plates.

108 DE FOE (D.) NOVELS and MISCELLANEOUS WORKS (Best Edition), with Memoirs, Notes, etc. including all contained in the Edition attributed to Sir Walter Scott, with Additions, 20 vols. fcap. 8vo. hf. calf gilt (as good as new), RARE, £10. 10*s*

Payne Collier, who has succeeded in pointing out the particular references in at least four-fifths of the instances where the original editor supplied only the names of the Authors, and even these names were in many cases wrong. The numerous gross mistakes in the text have also been corrected. Collier believes that Armin, not Allot, was the editor.

This work is intended to contain Illustrations, accompanied by as complete Letterpress as possible, of all known species of this beautiful Family of Birds. The Author possesses a nearly complete collection; and, having access to the best collections both in this country and on the continent, he believes that he will be able to make the work one which will be of use to the scientific worker, and also, from the beauty of the Illustrations, find favour with the general public.

As all the species have already been drawn, life-size, on stone, by MR. J. G. KEULEMANS, the plates printed by MESSRS. M. & N. HANHART, and more than two-thirds of them already coloured (by hand), and the MS. moreover is ready for press, the Author can reasonably promise that the work will proceed without delay.

The Plates—of which there are between 30 and 40—having been printed, are already erased from the stones; so that no more than the issue of 250 copies can be produced.

THE WORKS OF SAMUEL RICHARDSON.

Price, in cloth, £6 6s., or Tree Calf, by RIVIERE, £9 9s.

"Messrs. Sotheran deserve thanks for these handsome volumes of Richardson's Works, which are well bound and excellently printed. Not the least merit of the edition is, that it is introduced by a thoughtful and suggestive sketch by Mr. Leslie Stephen."—THE TIMES, 25th January, 1883.

From the EDINBURGH REVIEW, January, 1884.

"For our part, our advice to intellectual novel-readers would be to leave the circulating libraries in the meantime, and to buy Standard Editions of Standard Authors. Those authors, from Richardson down to Trollope, have written books which will well repay the reading again and again, and in that connection, as the Americans say, we are glad to call attention to some modern reprints of our most eminent novelists, which deserve all we can say in their favour.

"Among the pioneers to whom we alluded is Richardson; and the works of Richardson have been issued by Messrs. SOTHERAN & CO., under the very able editorship of Mr. LESLIE STEPHEN. Richardson, at least, left his genius time to ripen. It is impossible not to follow him with irrepressible interest in his intimate acquaintance with the workings of the heart, and in his subtle analysis of the feminine emotions which culminate in the pathos of tragedy without ceasing to be true to nature.

"Nothing in the history of fiction is, to our minds, more astonishing than the vitality which this dapper little London tradesman gave to personages belonging to a class of society which he had never known. Clarissa Harlowe retains her place as the most touching and tender representative of virtuous womanhood, and Sir Charles Grandison is still the model of high breeding and generous sentiment. They are as real as the creations of Shakespeare, and although a century has changed the taste and fashion of the times, it has taken nothing from the interest of those immortal works."

The New Volume: just Published.

"Mr. Smith has in this Vol. (Vol. 4), concluded one of the largest, most complex, and difficult tasks to which an Art historian and technical critic could devote himself. The result is one of the most serviceable books a lover of Art could be grateful for. . . . The 'Additions' considerably exceed in number the 'Corrections'; indeed the latter are, considering the innumerable varieties and states of the prints described, extraordinarily few—so few, in fact, that only those who have experience in cataloguing Works of Art are in a position to appreciate the care and research expended on this Work. . . . We may conclude by saying that the 'Index of Personages' in the last Vol. is an invaluable key to all the others, and to the 'Additions' above referred to."

A MEMORIAL EDITION

OF THE

WORKS OF THOMAS BEWICK.

In Five Volumes, Royal 8vo.

THE appearance of this Edition, first announced in 1882, has been unavoidably delayed by the deaths, successively, of Mr. Robert Ward, the printer (of Newcastle), and Miss Isabella Bewick, Bewick's only surviving daughter. The Original Blocks, which were sold recently, have been purchased by Mr. Ward's sons and successors, who will now proceed with the work. Paper expressly prepared for the reception of Woodcuts will be used; and all the modern improvements of Typography will be enlisted in order to secure brilliant and effective impressions.

The Set will consist of 5 Vols. Royal 8vo., as follows:—

VOLS. I. AND II. HISTORY OF BRITISH LAND AND WATER BIRDS, WITH THE WOODCUTS OF THE SUPPLEMENTS INCORPORATED.

VOL. III. HISTORY OF QUADRUPEDS.

VOL. IV. ÆSOP'S FABLES.

VOL. V. MEMOIR OF THOMAS BEWICK, WRITTEN BY HIMSELF: WITH NUMEROUS WOODCUTS PREPARED FOR A PROJECTED HISTORY OF BRITISH FISHES. NEW EDITION, ENLARGED; PREFACED AND ANNOTATED BY AUSTIN DOBSON.

TERMS OF PUBLICATION.

This Edition will be issued to Subscribers only, and will be limited to 750 copies.

No Volume will be sold separately.

The First Volume will be ready early in 1885, and the remaining Four Volumes will follow at intervals of Six Months.

 As the small edition of 750 copies will soon be subscribed for, intending Subscribers are respectfully urged to communicate with the Advertisers without delay.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

Either by payment of £2 10s. per volume as each is delivered, or by prepayment of £10 10s. for the complete Work; thus securing by the latter method the whole on more advantageous terms than by the former.

 Buyers on either terms bind themselves to take the complete Set of Five Volumes, for no Volume can be sold separately.

"While speaking of the English School, I must not omit to notice a truly original genius, who though not a painter, was an artist of the highest order in his way—THOMAS BEWICK—the admirable designer and engraver on wood. The Woodcuts that illustrate his books of Natural History may be studied with advantage by the most ambitious votary of the highest classes of art—filled as they are by the truest feeling for nature, and though often representing the most ordinary objects, yet never, in a single instance, degenerating into common-place. The charming Vignettes that ornament these books abound in incidents from real life, diversified by genuine humour, as well as by the truest pathos—of which the single figure of a shipwrecked sailor saying his prayers on a rock, with the waves rising round him, is an instance. There is often in these little things a deep meaning that places his art on a level with styles which the world is apt to consider as greatly above it, in proof of which I would mention the party of boys playing at soldiers among graves, and mounted on a row of upright tombstones for horses; while for quaint humour, extracted from a very simple source, may be noticed a procession of geese which have just waddled through a stream, while their line of march is continued by a row of stepping stones.

"The Student of Landscape can never consult the works of Bewick without improvement. The backgrounds to the figures of his Quadrupeds and his Birds, and his Vignettes, have a charm of nature quite his own. He gives us, in these, every season of the year; and his Trees, whether in the clothing of Summer, or in the nakedness of Winter, are the trees of an artist bred in the country. He is equally true in his Home Scenes, his Farm Yards and Cottages, as in the wild Coast Scenery, with Sea Birds wheeling round the rocks."—Handbook for Young Painters, by C. R. LESLIE, R.A.

A NEW AND IMPROVED TRANSLATION.

CERVANTES (M. de) DON QUIXOTE de la MANCHA: a new Translation from the Originals of 1605 and 1608, by A. J. DUFFIELD; with some of the Notes of the Rev. John Bowle, J. A. Pellicer, Don Diego Clemencin, and other Commentators, (finely printed in large type), 3 vols. 8vo. new cloth, 14*s* (pub. £2. 2*s*)
C. Kegan Paul and Co., 188[illegible]

"For more than two centuries and a half the Don Quixote of Miguel de Cervantes has been regarded by the thoughtless and vulgar as a piece of unmatched buffoonery; and perhaps he who, on account of the dulness of the times, could only speak to men with success, or even with safety, by means of pregnant wit and laughter, may himself in a measure be said to be the cause of this strange misapprehension. He declares that 'to those who were acquainted with the humour of Don Quixote, all that he did was matter of infinite jest.' Those, however, who are in the secret know this to be in part also a jest; and it seems to me that the time has come when his great work should be read not only for the beauty of its excellence, the charm of its style, for its sweet humour and tender compassion, but in order to perceive more clearly and enjoy more thoroughly 'the gross and scope' of that jest, as well as for the honour of its author and the glory of the work which he wrought. For he was one of the most renowned refiners of taste and manners of whom Christendom can boast, and, though dead, yet speaks in all the language of the polite nations of the world!"—Editor.

GILLRAY (James). A VERY EXTENSIVE AND VALUABLE COLLECTION OF THE CELEBRATED CARICATURES executed by GILLRAY, on Political, Social, and Humourous Subjects, between 1795 and 1810, comprising 330 large and elaborate plates engraved by Gillray himself, fine original impressions (including many which have of late years been considered worthy of suppression), all carefully laid down on thick paper, and bound in 3 vols. atlas folio, half morocco, £22. 10*s* 1795-1810

This collection is made more interesting and intelligible than usual by the Names of most of the principal persons represented having been written in pencil on the margins.

Gillray is undoubtedly the prince of English Caricaturists: his productions—carried through so many years abounding in important events—illustrate in an unusually striking manner incidents in the history of Great Britain during that period.

THE QUARTERLY REVIEW (April, 1874) thus speaks of him: "GILLRAY was marked out, and, as it were, predestined for his career, by an extraordinary assemblage of qualities; wit, humour, fancy, imagination, boldness of conception and execution, inexhaustible fertility and variety, intuitive knowledge of mankind, and unerring quickness of perception," etc.

And a very recent critic on his Caricatures says: "they are the most amusing and valuable illustrations of the social and polished life of that generation which it is possible to conceive." But it may be added, that his command over the Terrible, as evidenced by his delineations of sanguinary scenes, has scarcely ever been equalled.

In a paper on the plates to Pickwick (by S. Buss, in The Academy, December 4, 1880), it is stated that on the death of Robert Seymour, "Messrs. Chapman and Hall were not without offers from artists anxious to share the honour of contributing to this famous publication, some of them being willing to undertake the work without any payment whatever. Among these applicants was W. M. THACKERAY, who had practised etching for some years, having received instructions from Mr. Roe of Cambridge, during his undergraduate course at that university. But his proposal was declined. Thackeray himself mentioned this episode in his life at one of the Royal Academy dinners:—

"I can remember when Mr. Dickens was a very young man, and had commenced delighting the world with some charming humourous works, in covers which were coloured light green, and came out once a month, that this young man wanted an artist to illustrate his writings; and I recollect walking up to his chambers in Furnival's Inn, with two or three drawings in my hand, which, strange to say, he did not find suitable."

WILLIAM HENRY PRESCOTT.

"The most popular versions in English are those of Motteux, Jarvis, and Smollett. Perhaps the st is the best of all. It was by a Frenchman who came over to England in the time of James e Second. It betrays nothing of its foreign parentage, however, while its rich and racy diction, and quaint turns of expression, are admirably suited to convey a lively and very faithful image of the iginal. The slight tinge of antiquity, which belongs to the time, is not displeasing, and comports ell with the tone of knightly dignity which distinguishes the hero."—Miscellanies.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE.

JOHN DRYDEN'S WORKS,
ILLUSTRATED BY NOTES,
HISTORICAL, CRITICAL, AND EXPLANATORY, AND A LIFE OF THE AUTHOR,
By SIR WALTER SCOTT.
Revised and Corrected by GEORGE SAINTSBURY.

THIS EDITION OF DRYDEN'S WORKS is not an exact reprint of Sir Walter Scott's, nor is it a print of that edition with additions merely. On the other hand, the present Editor has included the hole of Scott's editorial matter, and has not interfered with the order of his arrangement.

THE TEXT has been carefully revised throughout by collation of the earlier and later editions, with e result of many, and in some cases very important, restorations of reading. This principally concerns the Dramas, which cannot be said to have been critically edited at all hitherto. In The Tempest, ge insertions and omissions, which do not appear to have been suspected by any modern editor, her of Dryden or Davenant, have been discovered.

ADDITIONAL ANNOTATION has been given wherever (as in the Life and the Introductions to the rious works) information not at Scott's disposal has accrued in the last three quarters of a century. planation (with which Scott's edition is scantily provided) of unusual words, phrases, constructions, welt as of allusion, has been given in foot-notes.

THE LETTERS, hitherto scattered, will be collected, and it is intended to give in the last volume, hich will contain them, a Bibliographical article, some account of the Portraits and other Memorials Dryden, and whatsoever additional apparatus for the understanding and enjoyment of his work has ggested itself to the Editor. The ENGRAVINGS of Scott's edition have been reproduced.

On the importance to Artists of a profound study of these grand and thoughtful compositions, Mr. Ruskin continually dilates in his "Modern Painters." The appreciation of the public is shown by the high prices given for the complete series—as much as £700 and £800 having been obtained for them.

HOLINSHED (RAPHAELL) CHRONICLES of ENGLAND, SCOTLAND, and IRELAND, newlie amended and inlarged [by Abraham Fleming], black letter, 3 vols. in 2, thick folio, beautifully bound by Rivière in Crimson Morocco extra, full gilt backs, and gilt edges, but slightly imperfect, as mentioned below, and therefore offered at the very low price of £14. 14*s* 1587

The above has been made up by the former possessor out of several copies. Vol. 3 (from William the Conqueror until the year 1577) wants the dedication to Lord Burghley and the Preface. Moreover, the title is a facsimile, and the "Castrations" and part of the Table have been supplied by reprints. Some of the leaves, also, are rather short, and others have been cut into, but not materially. Vols. 1 and 2, however, containing the excellent Descriptions and Histories of England, Ireland, and Scotland, are fine and perfect copies.

A REMARKABLE ILLUSTRATED COPY.

ELLIS'S (Sir H.) HISTORY and ANTIQUITIES of the PARISH of SAINT LEONARD, SHOREDITCH, and Liberty of Norton Folgate, in the Suburbs of London, one vol. 4to. EXPANDED INTO 3 VOLS. by the insertion of upwards of 330 engravings, comprising Portraits (many of which are scarce), Views, Old Houses, and other Antiquities; Original Drawings, Autographs, interesting Extracts from printed Works, etc. bound half morocco, uncut, top edges gilt, £30. 17·

Independently of other considerations as enhancing the value of this work, its extreme rarity in any state, must be taken into account, as is testified by an Autograph Letter from an Old Bookseller (which is inclosed) wherein he says that "it is the scarcest work on English Topography that he is acquainted with, and that he had seen or heard of only one copy during 25 years. This declaration is confirmed by the author himself, who, in an Autograph Letter preserved, writes: "There were but 250 copies printed; and I believe the largest portion of them were burnt in Mr. Nichols's fire."

AMONG THE PORTRAITS MAY BE MENTIONED:

The Author (a private plate lithographed by H. Corbould), 9 plates of Jane Shore (including a beautiful bare-necked one by Bartolozzi), Charles I., and St. Agnes (mezzotints by J. Smith); Garrick as Romeo, etched by T. Purland, 1851 (only 20 copies executed); The Rev. Arthur Biford (Jeremy Collier's coadjutor in his work on the Immorality of the English Stage); Richard Gough, F.S.A. (private plate); Foster Powell, the Pedestrian; and a vast number of others.

AMONG THE MISCELLANEOUS ENGRAVINGS ARE:

Both Views of Lunardi's Balloon Ascent from the Artillery Ground (with his Autograph)—Original print of the performance of Topham, the Strong Man (with scarce Newspaper Cutting of the Period—Curious Dinner Ticket, 1757*—Sadler's Balloon Ascent from Hackney—Scarce Views of the Church by B. Lens, Toms, etc.—Shoreditch Volunteers (coloured costumes, by Rowlandson)—Map of Shoreditch and Norton Folgate,* 1745*—Burning of Tomkins, a Weaver of Shoreditch—Stocks Market, etc., etc. Also the* ORIGINAL DRAWINGS.

AUTOGRAPHS: *Sir Henry Ellis (*2 Letters); John Wilkes (when Lord Mayor) to an Order for "Blue Money" (countersigned by Serjeant Glynn); Horace Walpole; Lord Burghley; David Garrick (on original Play Bill; scarce); Sir Robert Vyner; Robert Aske (founder of Aske's Hospital; very rare.

In addition to the Pictorial Illustrations, there are scattered through the work a great number of Cuttings from various Books, containing much information relating to the Parish, not mentioned by Ellis; also many amusing Extracts illustrative of Old Manners and Customs, Amusements, etc.

A REMARKABLY CHOICE SET.

HOGARTH'S WORKS: 90 SINGULARLY FINE ENGRAVINGS, by HOGARTH, INCLUDING THE TWO SUPPRESSED PLATES and THE PLATES IN THEIR FIRST, SECOND, and THIRD STATES, with numerous Variations, also the Alterations made by Hogarth; atlas folio, calf extra, gilt edges, £45. 17[illegible]

To point out all the features of this set of Hogarth would require an Essay occupying too much space in this catalogue, but it may suffice to mention that it contains the crux of Hogarthian collectors, March to Finchley, with the dedication to the King of Prussia, spelt Prusia; the Harlot's Progress, a variation in Plate I.; the Rake's Progress, with several curious variations, etc.

"The scarceness of the good impressions of Hogarth's larger works is in a great measure owing their having been pasted on canvas or boards, to be framed and glazed for furniture. There were people who collected his prints for any other purpose at their first appearance. The majority of these being hung up in London houses have been utterly spoiled by smoke. Since foreigners have learned the value of the same performances, they have also been exported in considerable numbers. Wherever taste for the fine arts has prevailed, the works of this great master are to be found. I am credibly informed the Empress of Russia has expressed uncommon pleasure in examining such genuine representations of English manners: I have seen a set of cups and saucers, with the Harlot's Progress painted on them in China, about the year 1739."—John Nichols.

This copy has been bound from a set which has not been framed, which accounts for their FINE STATE and FRESHNESS. Nearly all have the prices engraved upon them, and, with one or two exceptions, are all dated, and have Hogarth's name engraved in the usual place.

HARMAN (T.) CAVEAT or Warning for COMMON CURSETORS, vulgarly called Vagabonds: with the Tale of the second Taking of the Counterfeit Crank, etc., reprinted from the edition of 1573, with 7 woodcuts, 4to. half morocco extra (as good as new), £1. 1*s* 1814

Of this reprint only 100 copies were issued. It includes the woodcut of the Counterfeit Crank, found only in an earlier edition than 1573. All the early editions are of great rarity.

YNOLDS (Sir Joshua). CELEBRATED PAINTINGS, comprising 500 beautiful Mezzotinto Engravings by S. W. Reynolds, of PORTRAITS, SACRED, and FANCY SUBJECTS, after this great Master, INDIA PROOFS, 5 splendid vols. royal folio, half morocco extra, top edges gilt, £62. 10*s* 1865

"In taste, in grace, in facility, in happy invention, and in the richness and harmony of colouring, Joshua Reynolds was equal to the greatest masters of the renowned ages. In Portrait he went ond them; for he communicated to them that description of the art in which English artists are most aged, a fancy and a dignity, derived from the higher branches, which even those who professed them superior manner did not always preserve when they delineated individual nature. His Portraits ind us of the invention and the amenity of landscape."—Burke.

A NEW WORK ON BRITISH BIRDS.

COLOURED FIGURES

OF THE

BIRDS OF THE BRITISH ISLANDS.

ISSUED BY

LORD LILFORD, F.Z.S., Etc.,

President of the British Ornithologists' Union.

"The want of a series of accurately-coloured Illustrations of British Birds, in a handy form, has long been felt. Of the works specially devoted to this subject, that of GOULD is too bulky and too costly to be available to a large number of the lovers of Ornithology; and DRESSER'S 'Birds of Europe,' on the other hand, covers a much larger field. The text books of Macgillivray, Yarrell, and others, are unaccompanied by Illustrations such as I propose to issue; I think, therefore, that such Illustrations cannot fail to form a useful companion to the recognised text books on British Birds."

"The Drawings will be made in the first instance, by the best Artists, and the Plates will be Coloured Lithographs, reproduced from these by the best known methods."—Author's Prospectus.

To be Published in Eight Volumes, Demy 8vo. Illustrated by Portrait and Etchings.

VOLS. I. to VI. NOW READY.

(VOL. VII. WILL BE PUBLISHED IN MARCH.)

Scarcely any work of fiction by a foreign writer has taken such a hold on the English-speaking people as GIL BLAS, and this, notwithstanding the fact that no translation has yet appeared in which any attempt has been made to reproduce the exquisitely pure and concise style of the Author. Hardly ever was Homer burlesqued or Virgil travestied more broadly than has been the great work of LESAGE. The translation which has been most popular is that which bears the name of SMOLLETT, but the best authorities are now agreed that it did not come from his pen. Only his great name could have persuaded any reader to accept such a work by the term Translation.

The reception which was accorded to the translation of MOLIÈRE by Mr. HENRI VAN LAUN has induced the Publisher to secure his services for this new undertaking. In carrying out the work, Mr. VAN LAUN has endeavoured to give, not only a faithful English translation, but has also sought, as far as possible, to preserve the spirit and brilliancy of the original.

Prefixed to the first volume is an Introductory Notice, in which the translator treats of the much debated question of authorship and other matters. He has also prefixed a Life of LESAGE, and throughout the work has, by means of Notes, elucidated the difficulties or obscurities of the text.

No. CCXLIV. New Series.

A CATALOGUE
OF
ANCIENT AND MODERN,
COMPRISING WORKS IN MOST BRANCHES OF LITERATURE, OFFERED AT VERY LOW PRICES BY HENRY SOTHERAN & CO.,
136, STRAND, LONDON.

April, 1885.

 To prevent disappointment, Gentlemen are respectfully requested to address their orders to H. S. & Co. direct.—No Books, unless under special circumstances, can be sent for inspection; and none, after being ordered, are entitled to be returned, except for palpable imperfections.—If a single article be ordered, and no reply be given, the work may be considered as previously disposed of.

IN THIS CATALOGUE ARE INCLUDED NUMEROUS

BOOKS ON IRELAND, SCOTLAND, WALES, AND AUSTRALIA.

THE GRAND WORK ON PHEASANTS.

MONOGRAPH OF THE PHASIANIDÆ, OR FAMILY OF THE PHEASANTS, BY D. G. ELLIOT, with 60 large plates drawn by the inimitable JOHN WOLF and JOHN SMIT, and MOST BRILLIANTLY COLOURED, with Descriptions, 2 vols. atlas folio, new half morocco, ONLY £11. 15s 1870, etc.

This magnificent work (as it may be justly designated) is uniform with the equally fine publications of the late John Gould. Most of the Birds are life-size; and each plate presents (with few exceptions) the Male and Female, with appropriate backgrounds also coloured.

The low price of the present copy arises from the absence of the last two parts, which contain 24 more plates, the titles, indexes, etc. A complete set is generally sold for about £40.

VERY REMARKABLE COMPOSITIONS.

GOYA Y LUCIENTES (F., Pintor). CAPRICHOS INVENTADOS Y GRABADOS AL AGUA FUERTE POR F. GOYA, portrait of the Author and 79 very spirited and curious allegorico-satirical plates, illustrative of Spanish Life and Manners, with a MS. Index, very carefully written, sm. folio, hf. calf (RARE), £7. 10*s*

(Madrid, circa de 1799)

In the "Portfolio" for June, 1879, will be found an account, by Mr. Hamerton, of that "monster of immorality, impudence, and ingratitude," the Spanish artist Goya. It must, however, be confessed that he is the most original genius of modern Spain. Certainly more remarkable manifestations of inventive power have never been given to the world. Without the MS. explanations which accompany the present copy of the engravings it would be impossible in many cases to understand the allusions.

CHRISTIAN ARCHITECTURAL MEMORIALS OF CONSTANTINOPLE.

The above beautiful edition is the first collective impression of this early Scottish Classic, who has been described as a man of accurate observation and original thought—as one who displays a great knowledge of human nature, and who makes pointed observations on the manners and pursuits of mankind. He was also the author of the first metrical translation of a Classical writer in Britain. His body lies in the Chapel Royal, Savoy.

His poetical works consist of:—

I. THE PALICE OF HONOUR. [An Allegorical Poem exhibiting great power of invention, and a ready command of striking imagery; and from which it has been supposed that Bunyan may have borrowed the idea of his "Pilgrim's Progress."]

II. KING HART. [An Allegory of the Progress of Human Life; in which the versification is superior to the "Palace of Honour."]

III. CONSCIENCE. [An Invective against the growing desire of Churchmen for wealth.]

IV. THE XII BUKES OF ENEADOS of the famous Poete VIRGILL translated into Scottish Meter.

"Sir David Lyndsay has the distinction of being reckoned by general consent the most popular of the Early Scottish Poets, and all his writings had for their object an unmistakable attempt to expose and reform abuses whether in Church or State. He exhibits (without the least scruple in altering words to suit the rhyme) a great command of versification, a fine feeling for the beauties of external nature, and a fund of what may be called low genuine humour and keen satire; while for a vivid conception and delineation of individual character, even in his impersonations of abstract Virtues and Vices, he displays great dramatic power, and in this respect he far surpasses any one of the early Scottish Poets. * * * If we do not reckon him as one of the Protestant Reformers, it would be a greater mistake should we hesitate for one moment in asserting that his Satirical Writings had a powerful effect in preparing the minds of his countrymen, by the exposure of the manifold corruptions and errors of Popery, for the final triumph of the Reformation, accomplished mainly by the dauntless energy of our great Reformer, John Knox."

H. B.'s POLITICAL SKETCHES, the complete set of 916 Humourous and Satirical Sketches by the inimitable H. B. [John Doyle], introducing Portraits of all the celebrated Political Characters of the Day, and illustrating the important Political Events, with a Key to the Characters, 10 vols. oblong folio, hf. morocco, gilt leaves, and 2 vols. 8vo. of Key and Descriptions, £55. 1829-49

This is a complete set of these famous Political Sketches, from No. 1, published in Nov. 1829, to No. 916 (the last published), 24 July, 1849. Each plate is a Subscriber's copy, and neatly inlaid on a sheet of tinted drawing paper.

"Among the many distinguished persons, who, within the last seventeen years, have occupied the most exalted stations in the country, there is scarcely one of whom posterity will not have, in some part of this series of Sketches, the most accurate representation that the pencil can convey; a representation, in which the fidelity of the more elaborate Portrait is combined with a degree of freedom and spirit that the more elaborate Portrait very rarely exhibits. Nor is it only a collection of Portraits of the most eminent public characters of the day that posterity will possess in these Sketches; but so vigilant has been the eye, and so prompt the pencil of their Author, that there has scarcely been an incident of any interest in the political world, since the publication commenced, which he has failed to record."—Preface.

TANNER (Thomas, Bishop of St. Asaph). NOTITIA MONASTICA; OR AN ACCOUNT OF ALL THE ABBIES, PRIORIES, and Houses of Friers, formerly in England and Wales: and also of all the Colleges and Hospitals founded before 1540: Last and Best Edition, with many Additions, by JAMES NASMITH, 1 vol. folio, with portrait by Vertue and plates of Arms: Cambridge, 1787

EXPANDED INTO 18 HANDSOME VOLS. FOLIO, by the insertion of more than

NINETEEN HUNDRED VALUABLE ADDITIONAL ILLUSTRATIONS,

ANCIENT AND MODERN, SOME OF WHICH ARE COLOURED,

AND NEARLY 730 ORIGINAL DRAWINGS,

MANY BEAUTIFULLY EXECUTED IN COLOURS.

THE WHOLE BOUND in 18 vols. FULL ORANGE MOROCCO EXTRA, GILT EDGES, £135.

The present UNIQUE COPY of this most important work (which is also a very scarce one on account of the greater part of this—the best—edition having been destroyed by the fire at Nichols's printing office in March, 1808) owes its increased value to the life-long enthusiasm, the taste, and liberality of the late HUGH, ARCHDEACON OF SALOP, and his son, EDWARD PRYCE OWEN, M.A., both of whom were not only distinguished Archæologists, but also accomplished Artists, and who executed most of the Drawings. Some of these were made as far back as 1790; and thereby have an additional interest, as many of the Churches and other Edifices pourtrayed, have undergone more or less alteration, while in many cases they have been destroyed.

The above-named Illustrations consist of Exterior and Interior Views of Cathedrals, Abbeys, Priories, Churches, Chapels, Hospitals, Colleges, Castles, interior Decorations, such as Monuments, Fonts, Ancient Paintings, etc.; also full-length Portraits of Members of the various Religious Orders, etc. In the collecting of them, not only Engravings published separately have been used, but valuable works have been denuded of their embellishments, e.g., the original edition of Dugdale's Monasticon, Rapin's England, Buck's Views, Helyot's Ordres Monastiques, Coney's Views, etc. The Original Drawings (upwards of 700 in number, some of which are of a large size) are executed in Pencil, Pen and Ink, Sepia or Colours, and are not only valuable as exhibiting many Edifices of which probably no engravings previously existed, but as charming specimens of artistic skill and taste.

THE VOLUMES ARE ALSO ENRICHED BY MANY ADDITIONS IN MANUSCRIPT BY ARCHDEACON OWEN AND HIS SON.

 Such a copy must have charms for every enlightened lover of Antiquities, and more particularly for a Member of the English Church, and it would therefore find an appropriate place in one of our great Libraries, Ecclesiastical or Secular.

A Remarkable Illustrated Copy.

MIDDLESEX.—LONDON: ELLIS (Sir H.). HISTORY and ANTIQUITIES of the PARISH of SAINT LEONARD, SHOREDITCH, and Liberty of Norton Folgate, in the Suburbs of London, one vol. 4to. EXPANDED INTO 3 VOLS. by the insertion of upwards of 330 engravings, comprising Portraits (many of which are scarce), Views, Old Houses, and other Antiquities; Original Drawings, Autographs, interesting Extracts from printed Works, etc., bound in half morocco, uncut, top edges gilt, £30. 1798

Independently of other considerations as enhancing the value of this work, its extreme rarity, in any state, must be taken into account, as is testified by an Autograph Letter from an old Bookseller (which is inclosed) wherein he says that "it is the scarcest work on English Topography that he is acquainted with, and that he had seen or heard of only one copy during 25 years." This declaration is confirmed by the author himself, who, in an Autograph Letter prefixed, writes: "There were but 250 copies printed; and I believe the largest portion of them were lost in Mr. Nichols's fire."

AMONG THE PORTRAITS MAY BE MENTIONED:

The Author (a private plate lithographed by H. Corbould), 9 plates of Jane Shore (including the beautiful bare-necked one by Bartolozzi), Charles I., and St. Agnes (mezzotints by J. Smith); Garrick as Romeo, etched by T. Purland, 1851 (only 20 copies executed); The Rev. Arthur Biford (Jeremy Collier's coadjutor in his work on the Immorality of the English Stage); Richard Gough, F.S.A. (private plate); Foster Powell, the Pedestrian; and a vast number of others.

Both Views of Lunardi's Balloon Ascent from the Artillery Ground (with his Autograph)—Original print of the performance of Topham, the Strong Man (with scarce Newspaper Cutting of the Period—Curious Dinner Ticket, 1757*—Sadler's Balloon Ascent from Hackney—Scarce Views of the Church by B. Lens, Toms, etc.—Shoreditch Volunteers (coloured costumes, by Rowlandson)—Map of Shoreditch and Norton Folgate,* 1745*—Burning of Tomkins, a Weaver of Shoreditch—Stocks Market, etc., etc. Also two* ORIGINAL DRAWINGS.

AUTOGRAPHS: Sir Henry Ellis (2 Letters); John Wilkes (when Lord Mayor) to an Order for "Blood Money" (countersigned by Serjeant Glynn); Horace Walpole; Lord Burghley; David Garrick (and original Play Bill; scarce); Sir Robert Vyner; Robert Aske (founder of Aske's Hospital; very rare).

In addition to the Pictorial Illustrations, there are scattered through the work a great number of Cuttings from various Books, containing much information relating to the Parish, not mentioned by Ellis; also many amusing Extracts illustrative of Old Manners and Customs, Amusements, etc.

DURHAM.—COLLECTION of LETTERS, from the Newcastle Newspapers, addressed to the Magistrates of Durham, etc., and other tracts relating to Durham, in 1 vol. 4to. boards (uncut), £1. 11*s* 6*d* 1810, etc.

From Mr. Hartley's Library, with the following in his handwriting:—"These books should accompany Surtees's History of Durham." The other tracts are Letters to Sir J. Eden, Bart., Newcastle, 1810; to Richard Wharton, M.P., 1810; to the Bishop of Durham, 1811; Sir J. Eden, 1811; and a Letter to Leuconotus, 1811.

A Remarkable Collection.

DURHAM.—TRACTS relating to the HISTORY and TOPOGRAPHY of the COUNTY of DURHAM, printed at the Private Press of G. ALLAN, Esq., F.S.A., including also those printed by him for Mr. Pennant, on various subjects; some FINE PORTRAITS and VIEWS INSERTED (A MOST INTERESTING AND COMPLETE COLLECTION, all in good condition), in 1 thick vol. 4to. half russia (wants re-binding), VERY RARE, £8. 10*s* v. y.

The above volume was formerly in the possession of Mr. J. B. Nichols. Among the plates inserted are portraits of G. Allan and Wm. Hutchinson, Mr. Allan's fine ex libris, dated 1780, Views of Durham Cathedral, of the Abbey of Lindisfarne, etc. Inserted also is an original letter from Mr. Consett, with proof of an Ode by the latter printed by Mr. Allan, and having author's and printer's corrections, besides catalogue of books printed at Mr. Allan's private press, and catalogue of the sale of his library. Mr. Hutchinson's History of Durham was written with the aid and under the supervision of Mr. Allan's judgment. A smaller collection than the above sold at Mr. Allan's sale for £19.

DURHAM.—JACOB BEE, HIS BOOKE, given him the 29th of August, 1681, 3 cuts, facsimile of autograph and pedigree, 8vo. beautifully bound by HAYDAY, in crimson morocco extra, gold tooled, gilt edges (SCARCE, only 25 printed), £2. 2*s*
[Durham, 1819]

Jacob Bee lived 75 years in Durham, and kept in his Diary, of which the above is a reprint, a register of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, besides a chronicle of events between the years 1682-1706. All sorts of events were jotted down as they occurred—murders, foot-races, floods, comets, elections, etc.—and now possess great interest.

A Fine Additionally Illustrated Copy.

MIDDLESEX.—Collections Towards the History and Antiquities of Stoke Newington, compiled by James Brown, with a fine collection of additional illustrations, consisting of over 220 water-colour drawings, autographs, portraits, maps, plans, papers, etc., all carefully inlaid; handsomely bound by MACKENZIE, in scarlet morocco extra, gilt edges, gold-tooled on sides (a very handsome volume), £12. 12*s*
Impensis R. Percival, Highbury Park, 1844

It is rarely indeed that the process of "illustrating" a work has been carried out in so tasteful a manner as in the present instance. The water-colour drawings (many by T. H. Shepherd) are remarkable for their fidelity and delicacy of execution, while the views and portraits—all in good condition—include some of the scarcest of their class. Among other rarities the book contains the First Edition, from Horæ Lyricæ, of Isaac Watts's Ode to John Hartopp, and on Thomas Gunston. It would form a desirable addition to any topographical collection.

"Among the interesting memorials [Maps and Views] of the vast increase of London, not one can be of more interest, either as to rarity, or the multitude of associations—historical and literary—connected with it, than the one presented to view in this volume." The Sunderland Projectors, a ballad reprinted from the unique copy found by Mr. Sykes, The Tinmouth Bathers, another copy of the same on tinted paper, with Sykes's autograph; also Auction catalogue of his sale, etc. In the volume is an autograph letter from J. Scarcely any work of fiction by a foreign writer has taken such a hold on the English-speaking people as GIL BLAS, and this, notwithstanding the fact that no translation has yet appeared in which any attempt has been made to reproduce the exquisitely pure and concise style of the Author. Hardly ever was Homer burlesqued or Virgil travestied more broadly than has been the great work of LESAGE. The translation which has been most popular is that which bears the name of SMOLLETT, but the best authorities are now agreed that it did not come from his pen. Only his great name could have persuaded any reader to accept such a work by the term Translation.

The reception which was accorded to the translation of MOLIÈRE by Mr. HENRI VAN LAUN has induced the Publisher to secure his services for this new undertaking. In carrying out the work, Mr. VAN LAUN has endeavoured to give, not only a faithful English translation, but has also sought, as far as possible, to preserve the spirit and brilliancy of the original.

Prefixed to the first volume is an Introductory Notice, in which the translator treats of the much debated question of authorship and other matters. He has also prefixed a Life of LESAGE, and throughout the work has, by means of Notes, elucidated the difficulties or obscurities of the text.

Thus covering nearly a Year and a Half of Shakespeare's Life.

THE DIARY IS PRESENTED IN TWO FORMS:—

I. A Reproduction by the Autotype Process of the whole Manuscript.

II. A Literal Transcript of the same, with the Abbreviations expanded, an Historical Introduction, and Explanatory Notes.

THE AUTOTYPES are the work of Messrs. G. W. SMARTT AND SON, of Stratford-upon-Avon, and the Transcript was made by EDWARD SCOTT, Esq., Assistant-Keeper of MSS. at the British Museum. To these Dr. INGLEBY has written an Introduction, explanatory of the subject-matters of the Diary, with lithographed plans of Welcombe. Appended are Literal Transcripts of SIX CURIOUS DOCUMENTS relating to the Welcombe Enclosures.

When it is considered that Shakespeare had a large interest in the projected Enclosures and that his Name occurs six times in GREENE'S DIARY, which, in one place, records an

it will be obvious that Dr. INGLEBY'S WORK IS OF PARAMOUNT, NOT TO SAY UNIQUE, INTEREST, as well to the student of Shakespeare's Life and Times, as to the historian of Land-Tenures.

No time or pains have been spared to make this collection a thoroughly choice and complete one, and the result has been eminently satisfactory. Most of those contained in the above volumes would be looked for elsewhere in vain. The expense of formation must have been considerable, and to a local collector or antiquary these two folios would be most desirable and almost beyond all price.

D'Urfey's Tory Songs did much to strengthen the Royal cause, and his Protestant lays helped to bring Popery into disrepute. "I myself remember (says Addison in the 'Guardian') King Charles leaning on Tom D'Urfey's shoulder more than once, and humming a song over with him. It is certain that monarch was not a little supported by "Joy to Great Cæsar," which gave the Whigs such a blow as they were not able to recover that whole reign. My friend afterwards attacked Popery with the same success, having exposed Bellarmine and Porto-Carrero more than once, in short satirical compositions which have been in everybody's mouth."

"A l'explication en prose en est jointe une autre en vers français."—Brunet. The English prose is most grotesque—e.g., "By the vuord of almygthy god ar created and blyssed the erthe, day, nygte, heuen, the sey, the son, mon, sters, fyches, and beysts of the erth"—and was clearly composed by one unacquainted with the language. The plates are very spirited, and are said to be the same as those used in the Spanish edition of the same date.

SURTEES SOCIETY'S PUBLICATIONS, from the beginning in 1835 to 1876, 67 vols. 8vo. cloth, VERY RARE, £35. 1835-76

Long sets of this Society's Publications such as the above are very rare, as some of the volumes are quite out of print and very difficult to procure. The Society is still, after thirty-seven years, in a highly flourishing condition, including in its roll of members the names of many of the most eminent Antiquaries, Topographers, and Genealogists in the Country. To all who take an interest in the Antiquities of the Northern Counties such a set as the above is of the greatest importance and value, as the publications comprise inedited MSS. illustrative of the moral, the intellectual, the religious, and the social condition of those parts of England which constituted the ancient kingdom of Northumberland.

TESTAMENTA EBORACENSIA, or Wills registered at York from the year MCCC. downwards, part 1, £1. 1*s* 1836

The rarity of a fine and complete copy like the above is very great. In the first instance but very few were printed and almost the whole impression of two of the volumes was destroyed by fire. It is a most comprehensive and valuable county history.

VANITY FAIR ALBUM, a Show of Sovereigns, Statesmen, Judges, and Men of the Day, with Biographical and Critical Notices by "Jehu Junior," complete from its beginning in 1868 to 1882; over 700 spirited coloured cartoons by "Ape" and "Spy," 14 vols. folio, cloth gilt, gilt edges, £23. 10*s* (pub. £44. 2*s*) 1868-82

Complete sets of this work are difficult to procure. At the same time they are eagerly sought after on account of the remarkable way in which "Ape" and "Spy" have succeeded in hyperemphasizing the peculiarities of manner, appearance, and dress of all the leading men of the day without impairing the value of the portraits. Each cartoon is printed in colours, in imitation of the original drawings, and the whole forms an extraordinary gallery of contemporary portraits whose interest will steadily increase as years go by.

A FINE UNIFORM SET.

WALPOLE (HORACE, Earl of Orford) WORKS (BEST LIBRARY EDITIONS, uniformly printed in large type), with Portraits, 34 vols. 8vo. newly bound in buff calf extra, gilt edges (SCARCE), £42. 10*s* 1806-62

WALTON (Izaak) and CHARLES COTTON. The COMPLETE ANGLER: in two parts, with Lives of the Authors and Notes by Sir John Hawkins, with numerous engravings after Wale; ADDITIONALLY ILLUSTRATED by the insertion of STEEL ENGRAVINGS, WOODCUTS, MEZZOTINTS, WATER-COLOUR DRAWINGS, etc., including numerous very fine portraits, views and other pictures, LARGEST PAPER, extended to 4 vols. 4to. and bound in blue morocco super extra, bevelled boards, gold tooled on sides, and top edges gilt (A SUPERB AND UNIQUE COPY), £47 10*s* Bagster, 1808

The additions to the above work form a very fine collection of engravings in illustration of almost every subject touched upon in the "Complete Angler": they consist of a great number of original coloured drawings of Fish, fine and rare engraved views (many by the best artists) of River and other Scenery, many original drawings of the same, portraits (many fine) of personages mentioned, India proofs of the plates to Pickering's edition, and numerous plates from other illustrated editions, and in addition there are many prints and original drawings (the latter often of great spirit) in illustration of sport in general. As this enumeration gives but the chief features of the hundreds of plates comprised in the collection, it must suffice to say that the work as a whole forms one of the most desirable acquisitions that can be imagined to the library of an angler or other sportsman who takes pleasure in the employment of art for the honour of his favourite pursuit.

"Dr. Latham's work is not only an English Dictionary in the strict meaning of the term, but in many important respects a very valuable addition to our national Lexicography. It deserves to be studied by everyone interested in the language, and as a book of reference is admirably fitted for general usefulness."—Edinburgh Review.

"THIS TRULY GREAT PHILOLOGICAL WORK is now brought to a conclusion. To the VOCABULARY of the original work, which has always been considered defective, Dr. Latham has made so many Additions that his work may fairly be pronounced the MOST COMPREHENSIVE AND COMPLETE that has hitherto been ATTEMPTED. He has very properly admitted PROVINCIAL WORDS having an undisputed ancient origin; those WORDS OF FOREIGN ORIGIN which have been incorporated bodily into the English language; purely COLLOQUIAL PHRASES, and MODERN SCIENTIFIC TERMS, and COMPOUNDS of recent date. Another important improvement upon the original has been made in the ETYMOLOGY, all conjectural derivations having been rejected."

By this process the Engravings are hardly to be detected from the Drawings themselves. No description would realize the variety of subjects, and the wide range of Mr. CRANE'S pencil, nor the felicity with which each of the characters, human or semi-human, is drawn and individualized. Men, women, boys, girls, fairies, demons, elves, imps, beasts, birds, and even insects, all figure before us—singing, dancing, flying, joyous or sad, in each scene of the masque. All is May and Fairyland.

"The publication of 'Clarissa' (says SIR WALTER SCOTT) raised the fame of the author to the height. No work had appeared before, perhaps none has appeared since, containing so many direct appeals to the passions, stated, too, in a manner so irresistible. And high as his reputation stood in his own country, it was even more exalted in those of France and Germany, whose imaginations are more easily excited, and their passions more easily moved by tales of fictitious distress, than are the cold-blooded English. Foreigners of distinction have been known to visit Hampstead, and to inquire for the Flask-walk, distinguished as a scene in Clarissa's history, just as travellers visit the rocks of Meillerie to view the localities of Rousseau's tale of passion. Diderot vied with Rousseau in heaping incense upon the shrine of the English author. The former compares him to Homer, and predicts for his memory the same honours which are rendered to the Father of epic poetry."

"The exploration of MYCENÆ, which he (Henry Schliemann) next undertook, revealed to "the world a wealth of gold and bronze ornaments of the Homeric age, which had not been before "dreamt of; it threw a flood of light on the arts and archæology of the early times which has "revolutionized the ideas of the learned world regarding them. But the crowning discovery "of this long series of explorations is contained in the present volume, which gives an account "of the pre-Homeric PALACE AND FORTRESS OF TIRYNS, structures which probably date from "some centuries before the Trojan war."

"The shape in which this work is presented is uniform with La Bruyère and Brillat-Savarin, the appearance of which has already been noticed. Pickering's edition of 1832, which contains the additions of Ritson and of his editor and nephew, including the tale of Robin Hood and the Monk, the existence of which was ignored by Ritson, has been followed, and the woodcuts of Bewick have been retained. These are now printed upon India paper, with a view of communicating greater softness. To these indispensable illustrations have been added nine etchings which now first see the light, from original paintings by A. H. Tourrier and E. Buckman. Some of these, which are also on India paper, are very spirited in design and rich in execution. A handsomer edition of Ritson's Robin Hood, or a more coveted possession to the bibliophile, is not to be expected."—Notes and Queries.

TURNER'S LIBER STUDIORUM, Reproduced in Facsimile by the Autotype Process, edited, and each Plate accompanied by a Critical Notice, by the REV. Published in three volumes, each containing 24 illustrations, and bound in one fine volume oblong folio, new morocco super extra, gilt edges 15 0 0

The above Autotypes give for the first time a worthy reproduction of the wonderful designs which were begun by Turner in rivalry with the Liber Veritatis of Claude. They were original studies, carefully conceived for the purpose of engraving—etched on the copper by himself, their engraving carried on day by day under his own eye, and sometimes done by his own hand.

On the importance to Artists of a profound study of these grand and thoughtful compositions Mr. Ruskin continually dilates in his "Modern Painters." In Vol. V. he sums up the lessons and the meaning of the Liber Studiorum, and reiterates the angry exclamation of the great painter, "What is the use of them," he said, "but together?" The appreciation of the public is shown by the high prices given for the complete series—as much as £700 and £800 having been obtained for them. From this cause it has hitherto been impossible for people of moderate means to obtain the instruction and enjoyment which a study of the work must give, but which they may now, by the completion of the above AUTOTYPE FACSIMILE, obtain at a price which is within the reach of almost any admirer of Turner's great masterpiece.

By this process the engravings are hardly to be detected from the drawings themselves. No description would realize the variety of subjects, and the wide range of MR. CRANE'S pencil, nor the felicity with which each of the characters, human and semi-human, is drawn and individualized. Men, women, boys, girls, fairies, demons, elves, imps, beasts, birds, and even insects, all figure before us—singing, dancing, flying, joyous or sad, in each scene of the masque. All is May and Fairyland.

CAREY (Wm., D.D.), LIFE OF, Shoemaker and Missionary, Professor of Sanscrit, Bengalee, and Marathee at the College of Fort William, Calcutta, by GEORGE SMITH, LL.D., author of the Lives of "John Wilson and Alexander Duff," portrait and illustrations, 8vo. Published 0 16 0

This is the record of one of those lives of self-advancement in the face of almost insuperable obstacles, of which English history offers so many prominent examples. William Carey was born in 1761 in Northamptonshire; the son of a weaver, and himself a shoemaker, for the first eighteen years of his life he had to toil for his daily bread, but with the slender resources at his disposal he contrived to teach himself several languages. Appointed a Baptist preacher, he took a prominent part in the movement which was set on foot about the year 1792 for sending Missionaries to the Heathen. In the following year he went to India, the first ordained Englishman who set foot in that country as a missionary.

MAINE (Sir Henry). POPULAR GOVERNMENT, Four Essays. 1. Prospects of Popular Government. 2. Nature of Democracy. 3. Age of Progress. 4. Constitution of the United States. 8vo. cloth Published 0 12 0

Any work by Sir Henry Maine in the field in which he is without a rival, is certain to obtain wide popularity; but the appearance of the above work at the present time, when so many vague theories of Government and Natural Rights are being put forward, is singularly opportune.

YATES (Edmund). RECOLLECTIONS AND EXPERIENCES, portrait, cloth, 1 vol. crown 8vo. 0 6 0

The Recollections of this accomplished writer and man of the world cannot fail to be of the highest interest. The story of his early journalistic work, his connexion with Dickens, and his contretemps with Thackeray, are told in a charmingly natural, good-natured, and easy manner.

THE GREVILLE MEMOIRS (second part). A Journal of the Reign of Queen Victoria, from 1837 to 1852, by the late Charles C. F. Greville, Clerk of the Council; 3 vols. 8vo. cloth Published 1 16 0

This second instalment of these remarkable Memoirs is if possible more interesting even than the first, embracing as it does the period from the Queen's Accession to Louis Napoleon's Coup d'Etat and usurpation, and including the Free Trade Struggle, the rise of Mr. Gladstone and Lord Beaconsfield, the Irish difficulties of the time, and the Third French Revolution.

THE LIFE OF GENERAL SIR CHARLES NAPIER, G.C.B. By the Hon. Wm. Napier Bruce. With portrait and maps, crown 8vo. cloth Published 0 12 0

"This," writes Sir William Napier, at the commencement of his biography of his brother, "shall be the story of a man who never tarnished his reputation by a shameful deed—of one who subdued distant nations by his valour, and then governed them so wisely, that English rule was reverenced and loved, where before it had been feared and execrated."

SALAD FOR THE SOLITARY AND THE SOCIAL, by Frederick Saunders, popular edition, illustrated with fifty-two original designs by eminent American Artists, square 8vo. cloth Published 0 7 6

THE MOON; considered as a Planet, a World, and a Satellite. By James Nasmyth, C.E., and James Carpenter, F.R.A.S., with 26 plates and numerous woodcuts, new and cheaper edition, medium 8vo. cloth Published 1 1 0

Messrs. Nasmyth and Carpenter's work on the Moon, which was first published in 1874, attracted so much attention, and attained such wide popularity, that two editions were very rapidly exhausted. The work has since been out of print, and it has been determined to issue it in a more convenient and cheaper form.
